

I support media diversity

I am writing to you today to comment on Docket No. 02-277, The Biennial Review of the FCC's broadcast media ownership rules. I simply cannot fathom the rhetorical gymnastics one would have to perform in order to even slightly justify the proposed changes in media ownership rules. There is no question that these rule changes would have serious negative impact upon the whole of our democracy, our culture, and our citizenry, all at the benefit of corporate interests. It is imperative for the Commission, which ostensibly serves the people that stand to lose the most, to take the time to review these issues more thoroughly and allow the American people to have a meaningful say in the process.

Thank you,

Michael David Dwyer
Regular Joe.